PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

19 You shall complete 20 hours of community service per week until employment is obtained and started.

CAUSE

Mr. Walker is currently in violation of two standard conditions, specifically # 4: The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities, and condition # 5: The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

Mr. Walker entered the Spokane Residential Reentry Center (RRC) in November of 2010, where he began his job search activities. Since that time, he has failed to obtain employment. In addition, Child Support Enforcement has notified this officer that Mr. Walker owes $66,202.87 in back child support as of July 2012. He has six children that he has current child support cases for, none of which he is actively paying toward. This does not include the child that Mr. Walker conceived shortly after beginning his time at the Spokane RRC, despite his inability to provide for his other children.

Re: Walker, Jakekeyeda

August 22, 2012

As an alternative to returning Mr. Walker to the RRC, it is respectfully recommended that the offender complete 20 hours of community service per week, until employment is obtained and started. It is noted, Child Support Enforcement advised that continued failure to pay child support may result in incarceration.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
